Order Queries

If your order doesn't arrive in pristine condition, please send a picture showing ten of your prints that show an issue. If your order consists of less than 10 items, please send a picture of your whole order which clearly shows the issue. Email your pictures to our team at office@instantprint.co.uk along with your name & web order number. Our Client Services team will be in touch to discuss a resolution as soon as possible.

Please note: You must contact us within 30 days of receiving your order. It is also worth noting that we cannot be held responsible for any colour variances on an order that has been printed with us regardless of when it was printed.

If you have had any problems with the delivery of your order including it arriving damaged, shortages of products or it being lost in transit please email our Client Services team at office@instantprint.co.uk with your web order number and they will look into the issue right away for you.
